Dogface Improv Presents...

BENDY HOUSE: An Improv Duo
EDINBURGH FRINGE 2018

Bendy House return to the fringe in 2018 for their second year.

Bendy House – an improv duo. No script, no plan, a new and unique show every single performance. Taking just one word as inspiration from the audience at the beginning of the show, Chris Read and Danny O’Hara will create scenes, characters and sketches in front of your eyes. From the kitchen of a Romford semi, to the ministry of weather control on the planet Zarg – where will they take you today? Two people, two chairs, no script, infinite possibilities.

“What a brilliant performance - so funny from start to finish, I was gripped by the emotional drama of Shirley and her Black Forest gateau. Fantastic, would love to see more”
- Helen Rye, Multi award winning author.

As well as the 2017 Edinburgh fringe, Bendy House have performed at the nursery theatre in London and various locations in East Anglia. Chris and Danny run Dogface Improv - an improv comedy company based in Norwich and have trained with the Maydays in Brighton and IO in Chicago.

“We’re so happy to be returning to the fringe, we absolutely love the insanity of the festival. Performing 14 shows in 14 days is an incredibly exciting thing to do. We’ve been developing a new show structure behind closed doors and can’t wait to perform it to a public audience”
